Hopewell Vineyard is a special place. It was was planted by and is the home of Mimi Casteel whose focus is on regenerative agriculture: farming that emphasizes rebuilding, restoring and supporting the organic matter that composes healthy soils. The Chardonnay sourced from Hopewell displays lime, gooseberry and green apple, along with highlights of lemon verbena. It's rare to find such complexity in a Chardonnay with no new oak.

From Boushey and Red Willow vineyards, this stunner leads with ripe aromas of grapefruit, Meyer lemon, peach, honey, and spring flowers. The palate is quite rich and palate coating, with stone fruits, citrus pith, crushed seashell, and sweet floral elements. A streak of mineral acidity keeps the wine focused and quenching through the finish. Arguably the top Sauv Blanc in WA state.

Hand-harvested from vines nearly four decades old, this fresh, dry, 100% chenin blanc was fermented naturally with native yeast. Aromas of ripe pears, cucumber peel, and honeydew melon rind in the nose. It's lively, bright, precise and a tiny bit saline in the mouth.

Red Wine

Oregon Pinot Noir

"Since our first vintage in 1991, the Beaux Frères philosophy remains the same; to produce a world-class Pinot Noir from small, well-balanced yields and ripe, healthy fruit that represents the essence of our vineyard. In pursuit of these goals, the Beaux Frères Vineyard is planted with tightly spaced vines, and yields are kept to some of the lowest in our industry."

"The Beaux Frères Vineyard is located on an 88-acre farm atop Ribbon Ridge in the Chehalem Valley near Newberg (Yamhill County, Willamette Valley, Oregon, USA). Currently the vines range in age from 16 to 29 years and are predominately a mixture of own-rooted Pommard and Wädenswil clones inter-planted with several Dijon clones on phylloxera-resistant rootstocks."

Antica Terra is an eleven acre vineyard located on a rocky hillside in the Eola-Amity Hills of Oregon's Willamette Valley. Winemaker Maggie Harrison uses this land, covered in the remains of a pre-historic seabed (a fractured mixture of sandstone sown with fossilized oyster shells) to make some of the world's finest Pinot Noir.

Botanica

Botanica is always sappy and sanguine with a taste of wild rose, sour cherries, and blood orange. It has a compelling texture, lush personality and extraordinarily concentrated fruit.

Ceras is Botanica's counterpoint. It is more about minerals and herbs than fruit and flowers. It is a focused and elegant distillation of rock rather than an opulent cascade of fruit.

"Quilceda Creek has, from the beginning in 1979, focused on a single wine: Cabernet Sauvignon. It's like a Bordeaux château in that regard, concentrating its 142 acres of estate vineyard resources into a flagship wine. Since its first vintage...Quilceda Creek Cabernet has shown intensity of flavor within a towering structure.

In the early days a wine drinker had to tolerate swarms of gritty tannins to get to those complex flavors. The tannins are much less aggressive these days. Where early vintages needed two decades to reach an elegant texture, the purity and power of the fruit and savory flavors of the wines...make a bigger impression than the frame of structure around it. "

Made by John Abbott and sourced from legendary vineyard manager Kent Waliser, this shows Brandy soaked cherry, blackberry cobbler and sagebrush aromas fill the glass. The palate shows a wonderful mouthfeel and texture. Dark currant, creme de cassis, mocha and tar flavors all impress. Ripe, chewy and downright delicious, this is a seriously good Cabernet Sauvignon that has some good aging potential.

Côt is the name that malbec goes by in southern France and Troon's bright, balanced and zesty style of malbec was not only inspired by, but also reflects, the elegance and exuberance you find in the delicious malbec wines from Cahors, France. Plum and wild-berry fruit with smoky toast; fresh and mouthwatering with rich dark fruit flavors and a long, lingering finish.

Made 100% from the Mencia grape in the historic hillsides of Monterrei in the north west of Spain, this wine opens with an intense bouquet of red cherry preserves, prune and sandalwood. Deep strawberry liquor, red cherry compote and cola flavors are expressed with great richness while maintaining underlying acidity through the bright finish.
